OCCIDENTAL LIFE GET-TOGETHER AT AND FIRE WILL COMMERCIAL CLUB MOVE OFFICES TONIGHT WILL BE DOWN TOWN REAL HUMMER

Lease Is Signed Today, Whereby Insurance Companies Will Occupy Entire First Floor of Luna-Otero Building.

CONTRACTS LET FOR COSTLY IMPROVEMENTS

New Home Will Be Magnificently Furnished: The Old Quarters Have Been Outgrown and Are Inadequate.

The Occidental Life and Fire Insurance companies, which since organization have maintained headquarters and home offices in the Raymonds Building, Broadway and Central, will move in the near future to the first floor of the Luna-Otero building, northeast corner of Second Street and Copper Avenue.

Negotiations for the leasing of the building, under way for several weeks, were finally concluded today. Mrs. Adelma Luns and Edward M. Stevo affixed their signatures to the document which had already been favorably passed upon by the Occidental.

The moving of the Occidental head-quarters from the Raymonds building to the Luna-Otero building is an important event, and one that will be properly appreciated in business circles. While it has been generally recognized by the people of Albuquerque that the Occidental company has been one of the most certain extensive headquarters in this city, these facts did not receive proper consideration and make a proper impression because the headquarters were located on the upper floors of a building somewhat removed from the main business center.

The moving of the Occidental head-quarters from the Raymonds building to the Luna-Otero building is an important event, and one that will be properly appreciated in business circles. While it has been generally recognized by the people of Albuquerque that the Occidental company has been one of the most certain extensive headquarters in this city, these facts did not receive proper consideration and make a proper impression because the headquarters were located on the upper floors of a building somewhat removed from the main business center.

The Occidental head-quarters in the Evening Herald is in the heart of the business district. The building is a fine and costly structure, three stories in height, of fine brick and attractive architecture. The second floor has been assigned for new offices for the New Mexico forest service, which maintains district headquarters in Albuquerque. The third floor is the home of the Angelus hotel.

The first floor of the Luna-Otero building has extensive trackage on Copper Avenue and Second Street, and is an ideal place in every way for the house of such a big enterprise as the Occidental.

Contracts for the interior improvement of the Luna-Otero first floor, 100x200 feet, the main contract, which includes plastering of fireproof walls and other permanent fixtures, has been let to Wallace Heselden, of the Superior Lumber and Mill Company. The W. T. Company will do the plumbing and the Mehlman company will gift the metal ceiling. The interior is to be furnished in quarter-sawed oak, with accessories to match.

The interior arrangement is to be logical and attractive. The life insurance and fire departments will be separated according to the ideas of the department chiefs and the clerical army of employees will be in plain view of the people passing on the streets. Private offices for the convenience of officials are arranged for.

The story of the origin and growth of the Occidental company is too well known to need repetition. It is sufficient to say that the progress of the organizations has been remarkable and occasion for wonder on the part of many of the long established insurance companies.

Hundreds of Albuquerque Men Will Meet This Evening to Discuss Plans for "Greater Albuquerque."

INVITED GUESTS TO TELL HOW AND WHY

Bedichuk and Bassett, Publicity Experts to Address Over 500 Boosters; Smoker to Follow Session.

The largest meeting in the history of the Commercial Club is to be held in the club building tonight. There will be over 500 Albuquerque citizens present. This meeting will listen to a program which means business to every man in this city. The speakers include two of the most "spectacular" men in the country and many prominent Albuquerque leaders. The man who fails to attend this meeting is "out of touch with the men interests and the interests of his home city. He begins at a clock sharp. If you are a club member or not, there is no reason to come into the smoker afterward.

Albuquerque's spirit will be evidenced again tonight when several hundred Albuquerque men, both on the welfare of the entire community, will be gathered together to get-together meetings to be held in the Commercial Club, beginning at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be an important one, and it is certain that it will be enthusiastic. A live-wire program has been mapped out—a program that will prove attractive and interesting to all men present. Whether or not a man is a member of the club he is invited and urged to turn out tonight.

The program follows: Meeting called to order at 8 o'clock by President Krasman; progress in road construction under new county road system—A. J. Strom; River Improvement and plans of the state engineering department for irrigation and drainage surveys—J. H. Carroll, assistant state engineer; New Mexico state fair and status of legislative matters in which New Mexico is interested—Major E. B. Schell.

What big business men and politicians have done for the building—Rep. Billie.

Membership report and news of committee of 500—Secretary Heselden; Progress in city building—R. C. Strom; Refreshments and smoker.

MISS EGNA JOHNSON BECOMES BRIDE OF H. B. JAMISON

Charming Massachusetts Girl Wedded Today to Prominent Young Albuquerque Attorney: Home March 1st.

At noon today at Donnelly's Winchendon Hotel took place the wedding of Miss Egna Johnson, of Winchester, to Mr. Harold B. Jamison, of Albuquerque. The ceremony was simple, one only the Johnson and Jamison families and a few intimate friends attending. The Rev. Dr. John W. Shute, an Episcopalian minister, officiated. After performing the ceremony, Mr. Johnson was attended by his sister, Miss Alice B. Johnson, and Mr. Jamison to his car, where Dr. J. A. Thorpe addressed the couple, requesting that the Van Horn Inn just outside the city limits on North Fifth Street and Mountain Road, be selected as residence. Both agreed and said that the place chosen from the first was indeed the right one, and would be suitable for permanent abode. The bridegroom was advised to secure the services of Captain McElroy to obtain a license to the Van Horn Inn.

Atmospheric people, who know Mr. Johnson and his bride, will be much interested to learn of their marriage in fact of Miss Johnson's today at the Johnson family home. Mr. Jamison left Albuquerque several weeks ago, the marriage having been planned for after his return.

A resident of Winchester since 1898, Mr. Jamison left with his wife and extremely well fixed. He is one of the most prominent and thriving members of the bar and is a most active attorney, being greatly liked in the practice of his profession with Mr. M. E. Vight, skilled attorney in the district.

The bride is also known in Albuquerque, having visited here several summers ago. Her sister, Miss Barbara, spent several weeks here last summer. Miss Johnson, now Mrs. Jamison, is a charming and vivacious girl.

After a honeymoon trip through the south by boat from New York via New Orleans, and through several southern cities, the young couple will return to Albuquerque. Temporarily they will occupy the Clark Carr residence, North Fifth and First.

The newlyweds will be warmly welcomed by friends the young couple made while in service during the winter, and when in contact with the friends of Mrs. L. C. Clark, who will return to Albuquerque. Temporarily they will occupy the Clark Carr residence, North Fifth and First.
